STORY HOUR

Hi, my name is Aimee Schwab and I oversee the Story Hour for the library on Monday nights at 5:30 to 6:30 pm. During Story Hour we read interesting books, make creative crafts, and have a little snack at the end. This program is open to children of all ages! Please think about joining us every Monday night, kids really enjoy the time they spend here. The library also holds "Wee Little Story Time" on Wednesday mornings from 10:30 to 11:00 for children age 4 and under. We read fun books, and make a little craft. Please join us for this half hour program. Share the joy of reading with your child so they will grow up loving to read!

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

We meet the first Tuesday of each month at 7pm. The next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, November 1st ~ the reading selection is Saving CeeCee Honeycutt by Beth Hoffman. Join us for a lively discussion and fun evening. We will be reading The Christmas List by Richard Paul Evans as our December selection.

KNITTING

Winter is around the corner...are you looking for something to keep you busy? Come join the adult knitting group; we meet Wednesdays 1 to 3 pm. Sharon Straw will be hosting a children's scarf making class on Saturdays from November 26-December 17 at 10:00-noon.

THURSDAY IS ADULT COMPUTER NIGHT

CHILDREN IN THE CIVIL WAR

JANUARY 28, 2012
1:00 pm

Come hear what it was like during the Civil War for a young Confederate Flagbearer. Meet Jacob Granger, an 11 year old Civil War Reenactor. Jacob portrays the Flagbearer for the 4th South Carolina Infantry Regiment of the Confederate Army. Jacob will also explain the many roles children served during the Civil War.

If the weather is inclement, please call ahead to make sure programs are still scheduled.
If school closes due to inclement weather, story hour will also be cancelled.
